Band Take Home 'Best Alternative' and 'Best World Stage' EMAs

Mars picked up their 5th and 6th EMA awards Sunday night in Belfast when they were announced the winners of the 2011 Best Alternative Award and Best World Stage.

Not only were they nominated in 3 categories, they were the most successful band at the show, bringing home 2 awards. The awards were particularly meaningful for Mars as they were completely fan voted by their dedicated family of believers around the world collectively called 'The Echelon'.

Weekly Picks From the Band

Read of the Week

December 21, 2012, may be one of the most watched dates in history. Every 26,000 years, Earth lines up with the exact center of our galaxy. At 11:11 on December 21, 2012, this event happens again, and the ancient Maya calculated that it would mark the end, not only of this age, but of human consciousness as we know it. But what will actually happen? The end of the world? A new age for mankind? Nothing? Now Whitley Strieber explores 2012 in a towering work of fiction that will astound readers with its truly new insights and a riveting roller-coaster ride of a story. A mysterious alien presence unexpectedly bursts out of sacred sites all over the world and begins to rip human souls from their bodies, plunging the world into chaos it has never before known.

Movie of the Week

2001: A Space Odyssey is a 1968 epic science fiction film produced and directed by Stanley Kubrick, and co-written by Kubrick and Arthur C. Clarke, partially inspired by Clarke's short story The Sentinel. The story deals with a series of encounters between humans and mysterious black monoliths that are apparently affecting human destiny, and a space voyage to Jupiter tracing a signal emitted by one such monolith found on the moon. Keir Dullea and Gary Lockwood star as the two astronauts on this voyage, with Douglas Rain as the voice of the nearly-human computer HAL who controls the spaceship in which they are traveling.

Album of the Week

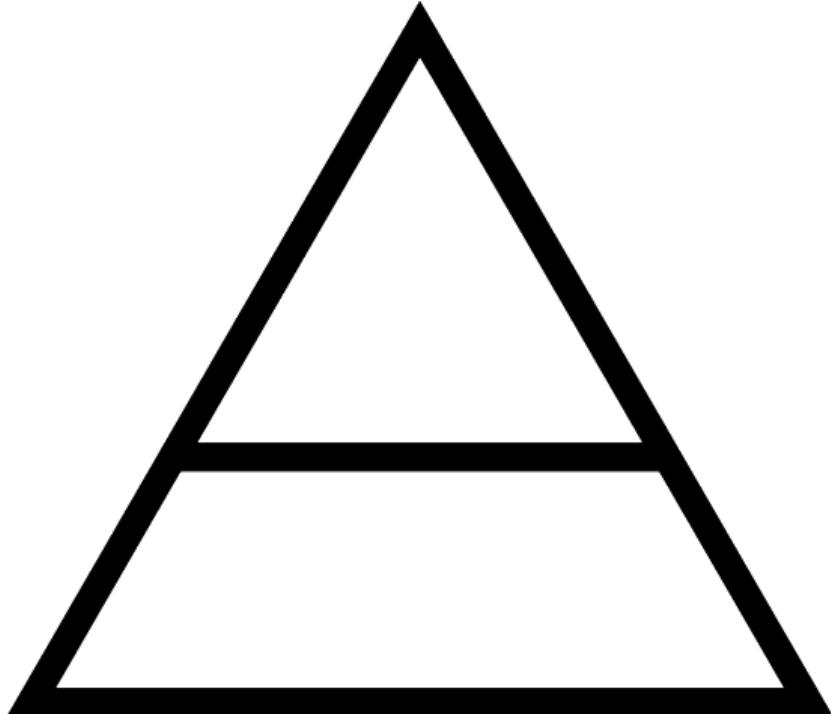

The King Is Dead is the sixth studio album by The Decemberists, released on Capitol Records on January 14, 2011. Described as the "most pastoral, rustic record they've ever made," by Douglas Wolk of Rolling Stone, the album reached No. 1 on the U.S. Billboard 200 chart for the week ending February 5, 2011. The song "This Is Why We Fight" has reached number 19 on the U.S Alternative Songs Chart, while the song "Down by the Water" has also charted in the United States.

Website of the Week

The National Wildlife Refuge Association (NWRA) is an independent non-profit membership organization that works to conserve American wildlife by strengthening and expanding the 150-million-acre (610,000 km²) National Wildlife Refuge System managed by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service. NWRA's mission is to engage and mobilize volunteers in building support for refuges, educate decision-makers in Washington, and lead diverse conservation partnerships designed to amplify the impact that refuges have in protecting wildlife habitat both within and beyond their formal boundaries. Founded in 1975 by former National Wildlife Refuge System managers and employees, the NWRA is the only national advocacy organization dedicated to promoting and protecting the National Wildlife Refuge System.
